WOMEN STREET CLEANERS BUSY Washington Matrons Lead Assault on SLAIN BY TURKS

Washington, April 16.—Bright and carly yesterday morning the women of the Twentieth Century club, began the Minor work of making Washington a spotless town. They swooped down on every stray bit of paper and other trash on street, sidewalk, lawn, or porch and guthered it in. The result is that Washington today looked cleaner than it has before in years.

The Twentieth Century club started the movement several weeks ago for the purpose of pointing out the possibilities in the way of steet cleaning, and emphasizing the dereliction of the street cleaning department. Women all over the city were invited to clean up their own front yards and the street in their immediate vicinity.

While the most of the work was done by the women yesterday, just about early breakfast time, busbands, fathers, brothers and sons were also pressed into service and a great collection of bones, bottles, paper, pastboard, old ahoes, and bric-a-brac was gathered.

Constantinople, April 16.—A massacre of Armenians was in progress yesterday at Mersine, a scaport of Asia Minor on the Mediterranean. As the result of their efforts the women expect the street cleaning department to be shamed into keeping things by Armenians and the fact that the spick and span hereafter.
